

Election Of Hylan Conceded

Head of Republican Campaign Committee and Anti-Administration Papers Admit Defeat in New York.

Socialist Is Poor Third

New York, Nov. 8.—Mayor Hylan's re-election was conceded today by Senator W. H. Calder, head of the republican campaign committee in Brooklyn and by several anti-Hylan newspapers, including the New York World, the New York Tribune, the Evening Mail, the Evening Sun and The Globe.

The vote in 1,310 districts was: Hylan, 349,567; Curran, 152,923; Jacob Panken, socialist, 42,929.

It was also conceded by their opponents that the democrats had made a clean sweep of the other important municipal offices, electing their candidates for comptroller and president of the board of aldermen and the five borough presidents.

Kohler Leading. Cleveland, Nov. 8.—Unofficial returns from half of the city's precincts indicated the election of Fred Kohler, former chief of police, independent republican candidate for mayor, over W. S. Fitzgerald, republican mayor. Kohler was leading by 3,000 votes.

Under the present system of voting, voters express their preference for mayor in first, second and third choice votes. In case none of the seven candidates receive a clear majority on first choice votes the second choice votes are counted. If this total vote fails to show a majority the election is decided on a plurality of all choice votes.

"Wet" Candidate Elected. Buffalo, Nov. 8.—F. H. Schwab, republican, running on a platform declaring for amendment of the Volstead act, to permit the sale of beer and light wines, was elected mayor of Buffalo by a majority of 2,563 over Mayor George S. Buck, also a republican.

Republican Leading. Indianapolis, Nov. 8.—S. L. Shank, republican, was leading Boyd M. Ralston, democrat, in today's municipal election by 19,899, when returns from 133 of the city's 166 precincts had been tabulated. The vote for mayor: Shank, 49,430; Ralston, 29,531.

Claim Election of Democrat. Richmond, Va., Nov. 8.—The Richmond Times-Dispatch early tonight claimed that incomplete returns indicated the election of Senator E. L. Trinkle, democratic candidate for governor, over his republican opponent, Col. H. W. Anderson, by from 35,000 to 40,000.

Republicans Ahead. Louisville, Ky., Nov. 8.—Official returns from 205 out of 370 precincts in Louisville gave Houston Quinn, republican candidate for mayor, a lead of 5,468 votes over Harris, democrat.

Six Men Killed, Five Wounded at Kentucky Polls

Election Fight Starts Shortly After Opening of Booths on Troublesome Creek, Breathitt County. Jackson, Ky., Nov. 8.—Six men were killed and five others were wounded in an election fight shortly after the polls opened at the Clay-hole voting precinct on Troublesome creek, Breathitt county, about 15 miles from here today.

The dead are: Cleveland Combs, 35; Ephern Allen, 35; Leslie Combs, 37; George Allen, 31; John Roberts, 30; George McIntosh, 30. The wounded are: William Barnett, 50; Ed Davis, 45; Will Davis, 30; French Combs, 35; Tom McIntosh, 30.

A special train has been sent from Jackson county physicians to attend the wounded. The story of the affray as it reached Jackson was to the effect that Ed Combs, an uncle of the Combs boys, and defeated democratic candidate in the August primary for county judge, was active in the effort to influence a nominee for the same office. Combs, it was said, entered the polling place today and attempted to give orders to the election officers. His relatives, according to the story, remonstrated with him and out of the argument grew a fight in which pistols were drawn and the shooting became general.

Public to Be Posted On Arms Meet

Proceedings of Conference Will Be Given Out in Full Detail. Administration Announces. Resolution Is Approved

By ARTHUR SEARS HENNING. Chicago Tribune-Omaha Bee Leased Wire. Washington, Nov. 8.—While the senate today was adopting a resolution urging full publicity of the deliberations of the approaching conference on the limitation of armaments the administration gave assurance that there would be no complaint on this score.

"You may rest assured," said one of the highest officials of the administration, "that the public will be informed of the progress of the conference with an unprecedented amplitude of detail. This is the sentiment prevailing not only in the American but in all the foreign delegations."

Proposal to Be Made Public. The American proposals for the limitation of naval armaments will be presented to the conference at an early session and immediately made public.

President Harding, in his address of welcome to the delegates when the conference convenes next Saturday, will refrain from submitting any program, but will dwell upon the shattered condition of the world and of the vital necessity to all nations of reducing the burdens of armament and of endeavoring to avoid war by composing international differences which might lead to war.

Garrett Probable Secretary. The secretary-general of the conference probably will be John W. Garrett of Baltimore, who for many years was in the American diplomatic service and represented the United States in numerous international arbitrations.

The resolution adopted by the senate without a dissenting vote, is that introduced some time ago by Senator Harrison of Mississippi, democrat, requesting the American delegation to use its influence to procure admission of the press to the meetings of the conference and to have the conference maintain and preserve a record of its proceedings.

Senator Lodge, one of the American delegates, set out to fight the resolutions as a species of impropriety, but withdrew all objection after elimination of a provision urging the delegation to use "their influence against any form of censorship upon any part of the conference that will prevent the public from being informed through the press of the correct attitude of delegations and nations touching the questions, considered in the conference."

The senator thought this an unwarranted imputation to the foreign delegates of a desire for censorship. "I should be very sorry to see the senate propose to interfere in any way with a matter which must be dealt with by the representatives of the powers which I invited here," said Senator Lodge. "I think the senate may rest assured that the senator from Alabama and I will favor all the publicity that is reasonable and certainly that a proper record may be kept."

"But what I object to is passing any resolution undertaking to hint or to suggest that the foreign nations who are delegates shall sit in the conference and who have a right to settle their own procedure in company with us, what that procedure shall be."

"It cannot be denied," replied Senator Harrison, "that subtle diplomacy is at work here now and will be continued at work through (Continued on Page Two, Column Five.)"

Confusion in Names Proves Embarrassing

Art Moran, 3522 Webster street, wishes it understood he was in no way connected with the quarrel which led to the shooting of Joe Moran by Frank Cirian in the basement of Cirian's home.

On two occasions Art Moran's name was erroneously given out as the man who was shot and killed by Cirian. Owing to confusion brought about by the fact that both Art Moran and Joe Moran were amateur ball players it was reported by mistake immediately after the shooting that Art Moran was the man slain. Again Monday, through an error, Art Moran's name was used in The Bee.

"The confusion has brought my husband and myself no end of embarrassment," said Mrs. Art Moran yesterday. "Art was in no way involved in the shooting or the quarrel between Joe Moran and Cirian. Art never has taken a drink in his life and could not possibly have become connected with such an affair."

Regents Agree to $360,000 Reserve For University

Stipulation Providing for Such Fund Filed in Supreme Court as Mandamus Is Dismissed. Lincoln, Nov. 8.—(Special Telegram.)—Stipulation of the agreement reached between Governor McKelvie and the university regents, filed in supreme court today, which means the withdrawal of the mandamus action against the governor, contains the following high points.

The regents put up the white flag and the governor granted an armistice which ended in terms satisfactory to him, filed today. A total reserve of $360,000 will be set aside from the $6,000,000 university appropriations. The sum of $45,000 is set aside each quarter for a reserve and if, after the quarter, the regents can show the governor a good reason why they should spend it, the governor can turn any part of $45,000 over to them.

The regents put up the white flag and the governor granted an armistice which ended in terms satisfactory to him, filed today. The main contention was whether the governor should act as a clerk to scan university estimates for the purpose of discovering clerical errors with a view to "if you will do it, boys," or whether as the man directly responsible to the people he had a right to cut down on estimates if he believed they were too high.

Premier Briand Calls on Harding

French Delegates to Arms Conference Spend Day in Round of Visits. Washington, Nov. 8.—America's unknown dead from France was in home waters tonight, riding in state aboard the old cruiser Olympia over the waters of Chesapeake bay. Tomorrow, to the crash of guns from saluting forts and naval posts, the treasured casket will move in honored progress up the historic Potomac, and in preparation for its arrival late tomorrow, events were shaping themselves toward a climax of honors on Armistice day.

As the Olympia steams slowly up the river, the guns of Fort Washington will roar the national salute of 21 guns to her half-masted flag. Off Mount Vernon, the ship will pay its homage to the tomb of Washington. Again at Washington barracks a battery will hammer out its 21-gun message, to be repeated again at Washington navy yards as the old ship ends her journey.

Even as she turns into the Potomac early tomorrow, the Olympia will be accompanied by the highest naval honors for the unknown soldier she carries. The battleship North Dakota lies a distance up the river with guns and flags waiting to pay tribute, and ahead of the cruiser will steam the destroyer armad, as escort of honor to the dead.

At the navy yard, the navy will surrender custody of the casket that marks in the nation's history the glory of him who dies for the flag, to the army comrades of the dead man. He will be given back to the keeping of the khaki-clad men with whom he fought in France. His hero guard of honor alone will lay hand on his coffin thereafter.

Force of 1,000 Troops to Be Placed on Duty in 15 Principal Cities Postmaster General Announces.

Harding Approves Plan

Washington, Nov. 8.—With orders to shoot to kill if necessary to prevent mail robberies, 1,000 marines were ordered to duty today as guards of mail trains and trucks and at postoffices in 15 cities. The men will be armed with pistols and sawed off shotguns, Postmaster General Hays announced, after a conference with Major General Lejeune, commandant of the marine corps.

The marines are to be replaced eventually, he said, by a special force recruited from the postal service. Arrange for Marines. Arrangements for the services of the marines, Mr. Hays said, were made with the secretary of the navy.

The postmaster general also announced that as a result of the recent New York robbery, orders had been issued suspending from the service three New York postoffice officials—E. M. Norris, superintendent of mails; Henry Lippman, superintendent of registry, and W. S. Mayer, superintendent of money orders. Investigation of the New York robbery, he declared, will be continued.

Among the cities to which they will be sent are San Francisco and Los Angeles. Declaring it was proposed to protect the United States mails on the last postal card, regardless of cost and sacrifice, Mr. Hays said he wanted it known that the Postoffice department had declared "Open warfare on the crooks and bandits."

Continuance Granted In Burch Murder Trial

Los Angeles, Nov. 8.—Judge Sidney N. Reeve granted the motion of the defense for a continuance in the trial of Arthur C. Burch, charged with the murder of J. Belton Kennedy. This ruling followed a finding that Burch should not be given a preliminary trial to determine his sanity.

After a brief argument the court denied the motion for a dismissal of the indictments against Mrs. Obenchain and her attorneys asked for an immediate trial. Court recessed until 10 o'clock to give the district attorney time to prepare affidavits showing why this was impracticable.
